

The Poverty and Inequality Commission Meeting - Thursday 30 January 2020

10:00am – 3:00pm (lunch 12:30pm, tea and coffee available from 9:30am)

Glasgow City Chambers, 82 George Square, Glasgow G2 1DU

Agenda

Morning session: 10am - 12pm

1. Welcome and apologies
2. Discussion: 'Should Scotland be moving from a commitment to inclusive growth to a wellbeing economy? And if so how?'

Expert attendees:

Gary Gillespie, Chief Economist, Scottish Government

Katherine Trebeck, Policy and Knowledge Lead, Wellbeing Economy Alliance

Gerry McCartney, Head of Scottish Public Health Observatory

Rachel Statham, Economic Analyst, IPPR Scotland

Richard Foggo, Director of Population Health, Scottish Government

Commission session: 12pm - 3pm

3. Presentation from Elizabeth Fraser, Scottish Government statistician, on local data

Lunch

4. Tackling Child Poverty Delivery Plan progress report – proposals for approach and areas to look at (Paper 1)
5. Letter for Cabinet Secretary on Fairer Scotland Action Plan progress (Paper 2)
6. Research update
7. Commission public meeting (Paper 3)
8. Discussion of session on taxation

9. Consultation opportunities - Housing 2040, the National Planning Framework, National Transport Strategy implementation & minimum transport standard (Paper 4)

10. Any other business